For centuries the Sufis have been in a dialogue about the need for will power and effort in spiritual development as well as being present while allowing awakening to occur naturally on its own. The implications of this conversation turn out to be critical. As we proceed on the journey skillful practice becomes subtle and more important. In this workshop we will continue this conversation. We will develop the practice of knowing through presence, a practice made possible in the faculty of the subtle heart. This seminar will be an experiential exploration of the interplay and integration of awakening and effort. We will trace “awakening through presence” through its developmental stages, and its fruit—the embodiment of a new ecology of being.

This intensive will present material being developed by a committee in the Inayati Order chaired by Himayat (comprised of Taj Inayat, Pir Vilayat’s spiritual partner & Pir Zia’s mother; Nigel Hamilton, international VP of the Esoteric School; Khabira Brown National VP of the Esoteric School; Gayan Macher, senior teacher in the Order, Sake Santerelli, Director Mindfulness-Based Stress Reduction Clinic; and Huzur Nawaz, Inayati Order Board Member).
