"Identify yourself with the light counterpart of the fabric of your body!"

"From the Sufi point of view, the purpose of life is to actualize the meaningfulness and splendor behind it, behind the universe, by building a beautiful world, a beautiful people."

Pir Vilayat Inayat Khan

Pir Vilayat invoked a beautiful world filled with beautiful people and often underscored that the dervish brings to the world a living God - bringing Reality right into the market place! Today's world is brimming with clouds all around us and naturally within us as well. The challenge that Pir Vilayat offers is to unleash that Great Spirit found at the depth of our soul in a manner that illuminates us and is shared with the world around us. This three-day retreat will revisit, celebrate, and apply the teaching of Pir Vilayat - addressing need of the young adult entering the world, the mature adult moving through this world, and the older adult making use of the space that is now offered within their life.

This retreat will focus on:

- Removing obstacles to our thinking
- Awakening to deeper and wider dimensions of Reality
- Awakening to the Divine Message within everyday life
- Experiencing a shift from individuation toward a fuller personality
- Sharing the joy of spiritual realization with the greater community of life
