The great Sufi master Ibn al Arabi taught that life is an ever re-created series of dreams – each aspect of which is pregnant with meaning. Being present through the eye of the subtle heart unlocks the forms of life’s manifestations allowing us to awaken to the meaning embedded within them. Learning how to employ the eye of the subtle heart, participants will improve their understanding and skill in spiritual wayfaring, particularly addressing:

- The use of effort and presence in spiritual practice.
- The employment of the compass of the heart in life’s journeying
- The employment of the eye of the heart in spiritual understanding
- Becoming aware of the nature and dynamics of your soul
