

Realizing Peace, Harmony & Fulfillment in an Incessantly-Changing World

*Insights and outlooks of the Raphaelite Work™ by its founder
Himayat Inayati

Our world is changing so fast and offers so many challenges, both collectively and personally, that life can be felt as a crisis — with no clear sense of direction or purpose. Though disorienting and alarming, it can also initiate a fresh outlook, a new beginning, and a positive change — for the planet, the nation, the community, and of course, the individual. Such a critical time is best navigated with creativity, an experience of inner freedom and space, and with the felt ability to employ personal choice with clarity and optimism.
