Ever wonder how you could really be the change you want to see? Ever wonder if you could be the person you truly know you are? Each of us holds the possibility of true transformation of our self and of life around us. Each of us is an aspect of the evolution of the cosmos. Each person is given a unique signature of her or his soul, a "knowing" given to no other. Our ability to awaken to and embrace this signature furthers personal as well as planetary evolution. Now more than ever, we need to engage in the work of knowing ourselves more deeply and participate in a personal realization of fulfillment and authenticity. Participants of this weekend event will be given tools, orientation, and the opportunity to encounter and embrace the signature of their truest sense of self. Join Himayat in a journey to your soul!
